

Session 1 Breakouts: 10:00 am – 10:50 am

Session	Class Descriptions	Presenters
1001
	Family Childcare & Mixed Age Groups
1002	This session will focus on the strategies to enhance communication and social skills in children with autism spectrum disorders, emphasis will be on intervention that can be embedded within the child’s daily routines.	Jennifer Hutchinson Speech/Lang. Pathologist, Granite School District
1003	Children’s access to outdoor play is evaporating like water in sunshine. Come prepared to have a rollicking good time in this fast paced workshop that will leave you with great new ideas to make your outdoor time sizzle as your behavior issues evaporate in the sun.	Elizabeth Barker & Kim Kitteridge Training Coordinator CCR&R Western
1006	Finally a class for cooks in child care centers. Ideas that I do as a cook. Ideas for having cooking activities in the classroom with children. Share ideas on having a parent gathering with food involved.	Melissa Reeves Lead Cook SZCC Eccles Lab School
1007	ABC Lear & Take: Fun hands-on activities to teach children alphabet recognition in the classroom.	Mindy Hardy & Cordie Moosman CCR&R Eastern
1009	Little Buckaroos Learn & Take	Lyn Baker CCR&R Merto
1027	Go from ‘frenzie’ to fun while experiencing the typical behaviors of mixed age groups. Enhance your ability to plan effectively for the ‘lively’ emotional and social needs of all children	Tracy Halverson NAFCC, Home Provider, MA in ECE
1028	Ideas for preschool curriculum to prepare children for kindergarten with age appropriate activities to meet the needs of mixed age groups.	Colleen Larson PFCCA, Owner/Director Guidance Preschool
1029	Ideas for developing responsibilities and independence in young children. Skills you can teach, results you will enjoy!	Encarni Gallarado, Director CCR&R Metro
1031	It’s an Emergency! Making sure that you are ready when disaster strikes.	Raelyn Rigby RN & Child Health Consultant for Cache County
	Infant/Toddler
1019
1021	We will talk about ways to use ‘tummy time’ effectively and how caregivers can gain knowledge of the child’s developmental level through tummy time observation.	Linda Smith Infant/Toddler Specialist KOTM
1032	Come discover science and nature activities for infants and toddlers!	Barbara Black Infant/Toddler

		Specialist , The Children's Center
	Preschool/Kindergarten
1014	Come and explore UEN's Preschool Pioneer Library which is modeled after the very successful Pioneer Library for K-12, college, and public library patrons. This is an on-line collection of quality educational resources site free to all families with young children in Utah.	Lisa Cohne Instructional Services Specialist, UEN
1015	PBS Raising Readers. Learn about the Foundation in Early Childhood Literacy & Media as a Tool for Learning.	Jacqui Voland: Community Outreach Manager & Curtis Baugh: Ready to Learn Project Manager
1016	Come find simple activities to encourage the use of the child's singing voice. Learn what to expect at different stages of vocal development and the healthful benefits of singing.	Julie Goodro Music Specialist, Virginia Tanner Fine Arts Preschool
1018	Fun simple ways to get young children involved in early math learning activities.	Crystal Knippers Training Coordinator CCR&R Northern
	School Age
1023	This session will provide participants ideas and information for bridging the gap between the school day and the afterschool program. Learn ways to connect through staffing assignments, shared resources and open lines of communication.	Brandy Huntington After School Mentor, Utah Afterschool Network
1030	Building Self Esteem and Assets for Future Success in School Age Children	Patricia Feickert After School Mentor, Utah After School Network
	Spanish
1033	Juegos y Juegos "Games and Play" is an invitation to use more games to teach concepts, develop skills and have fun!	Simon & Maria Bolivar Tiny Giants Owners & Directors
	Administrative
1024	Directors and supervisors have countless opportunities to advance staff competencies and increase motivation. In this session, we will share a list of practical and unexpected strategies to get staff thinking & engaging with young children, parents and each other.	Sheila Anderson: Instructor, Weber State University& Carrie Ota: Instructor, Utah State University
1025

Session 2 Breakouts: 11:00 am – 11:50 am

Class #	Description of Presentation	Presenter
	Family Child Care/Mixed Ages
2001	The Happiest Baby on the Block: How to make fussy babies calm, calm babies serene, and all babies sleep longer.	Dr. Harvey Karp
2002	This session will focus on the strategies to enhance communication and social skills in children with autism spectrum disorders, emphasis will be on intervention that can be embedded within the child's daily routines.	Jennifer Hutchinson: Speech/Lang. Pathologist Granite School District
2003	Children's access to outdoor play is evaporating like water in sunshine. Come prepare to have a rollicking good time in this fast paced workshop that will leave you with great new ideas to make your outdoor time sizzle as your behavior issues evaporate in the sun.	Elisabeth Barker: Director & Kim Kitteridge: Training Coordinator CCR&R Western
2006	Finally a class for cooks in child care centers. Ideas that I do as a cook. Ideas for having cooking activities in the classroom with children. Share ideas on having a parent gathering with food involved.	Melissa Reeves Lead Cook SLCC Eccles Lab School
2007	ABC Learn & Take: Fun hands-on activities to teach children alphabet recognition in the classroom.	Mindy Hardy & Cordie Moosman CCR&R Eastern
2009	"Games and Play" is an invitation to use more games to teach concepts, develop skills and have fun!	Simon & Maria Bolivar Little Giants Owners & Directors
2027	Go from 'frenzie' to fun while experiencing the typical behavior of mixed age groups. Enhance your ability to plan effectively for the 'lively' emotional and social needs of all children	Tracy Halverson NAFCC, MA in ECE and Home Provider
2028	Ideas for preschool curriculum to prepare children for kindergarten with age appropriate activities to meet the needs of mixed age groups.	Colleen Larson PFCCA, BA CDA NAFCC Accredited
2031	It's an Emergency! Let's make sure that you are ready when disaster strikes.	Raelyn Rigby RN & Child Health Consultant for Cache County
	Infant/Toddler
2021	We will talk about ways to use 'tummy time' effectively and how caregivers can gain knowledge of the child's developmental level through tummy time observation.	Linda Smith Infant/Toddler Specialist KOTM
2032	Come and discover ideas for science and nature activities for infants and toddlers.	Barbara Black Infant/Toddler specialist The Children's Center

	Preschool/Kindergarten
2014	Come and explore UEN's Preschool Pioneer Library which is modeled after the very successful Pioneer Library for K-12, college and public library patrons. This is an on-line collection of quality educational resources site free to all families with young children.	Lisa Cohne Instructional Services Specialist UEN
2015	PBS Raising Readers. Learn about the Foundation in Early Childhood Literacy & Media as a Tool for Learning	Jacqui Volland : Community Outreach Manager & Curtis Baugh: Ready to Learn Project Manager
2016	Here are simple activities to encourage the use of the child's singing voice. Learn what to expect at different stages of vocal development and the healthful benefits of signing.	Julie Goodro Music Specialist Virginia Tanner Fine Arts Preschool
2018	'Let's go Fishing & Catch a Rainbow' Learn & Take	Sandy Craft CCR&R Metro
	School Age
2023	Using the Utah Afterschool Program Quality Assessment and Improvement Tool this session will go over the necessary items that need to be in place to have a quality afterschool program.	Brandy Huntington After School Program Mentor Utah After School Network
2030	Building Self Esteem and Assets for Future Success in School Age Children	Patricia Feickert After School Mentor Utah after School Network
	Spanish
2012	Desarrollando Responsabilidad e Independencia: Habilidades que se pueden enseñar y resultados que se disfrutan	Encarni Gallardo Training Specialist CCR&R Metro
	Administrative
2024	Directors and Supervisors have countless opportunities to advance staff competencies and increase motivation. In this session, we share a list of practical and unexpected strategies to get staff thinking & engaging with young children, parents and each other.	Sheila Anderson: Instructor, Weber State University & Carrie Ota: Instructor, Utah State University
2025	In this session we will provide insight and ideas for those who supervise, as we enhance staff retention and staff work performance.	Crystal Knippers: Training Coordinator CCR&R Northern

1st Half-Day Breakouts: 10:00 am – 11:50 am

	Family Child care/ Mixed Ages
3028	There are 42,000 children in Utah who are being raised by a relative. These children come to their relative’s home with a myriad of issues and caregivers face many obstacles in meeting their needs. We will discuss these issues and the tools that can be put into place for success.	Jacci Graham: LCSW, Grandfamilies Director & Anna-Lee Hernandez: SSW, Grandfamilies Coordinator, Children’s Services Society
3209	We will present the “7 Habits of Highly Effect People” by Stephan R Covey. And how I was able to use these habits a new director.	Tomi Kim Owner & Director Kinderland Inc,
	Infant/Toddler
3220	The new kid is overwhelmed, the teacher is frustrated, the parents are sad and concerned! We’ll discuss things we can do to help the new child through his first days.	Vickie Becker Infant/Toddler Specialist The Children’s Center
	Spanish
3212	We will use a multimedia interactive presentation to explore creative and fun ideas to use books, music and movements with parent interaction to help your body develop properly.	Jeane Adam: Child Development Specialist & Martha Scott: Family Educator, KOTM
	Administrative
3226	Too often Child care providers get caught up in their daily operations and do not take the time to plan for the future. This workshop is designed to provide child care business owners and directors with critical evaluation tools and action steps they need to maximize the growth and profitability of their business.	Carrie Menzel Financial & Performance Analyst, SLCC

3230	Caring for children and working with parents and co-workers can be stressful and emotionally charged. A high degree of self-awareness and self-care is part of skill and knowledge base to survive and thrive in the work of quality child care.	Alda Jones Program Director The Children's Center
------	--	---

Session 3 Breakouts: 1:00 pm – 1:50 pm

Class #	Description of Presentation	Presenter
	Family Childcare/Mixed Age s
3001	This presentation provides information on 'normal' reactions to loss and grief that children will experience. Learn the different developmental stages of grief and their impact in the classroom	Barbara Norris Executive Director A Center for Grieving Children
3002	This session will share the knowledge of building relationships and creating nurturing and supportive early Childhood environments.	Jill Chesley-McGinnis Program Coordinator The Children's Center
3003	We have created a FUNdamental workshop outline. You can apply subject to the outline to make a workshop for teachers and fun lessons for children. When creating these workshops we have incorporated hand-on felt sets for greater creativity & learning.	Joy Nebeker & Rachel Miller SRT Independent Consultants
3004	In this class we will gain a better understanding of different communication styles and help teachers become more of a coach/mentor for young children to build self esteem.	Dianne Yancey President DSN Coaching
3005	Attendees will gain knowledge of common speech & Language disorders in preschool children. We will discuss techniques the classroom teacher can use to facilitate speech & Language growth and when to refer to a speech pathologist.	Julia Lidgard Speech/Lang, Pathologist U of U
3006	Learn about Child Health & Nutrition and the Signs of Abuse and Reporting	Joyce Hasting Center Training Specialist State of Utah
3007	Come and learn some fantastic ideas on what to do with all that junk! Participates will be actively involved in creating art projects, building musical instruments and will learn other cool ideas to do beautiful junk!	Stephanie Jensen & Kim Dutson CCR&R Bridgerland
3011	In this workshop we will discuss professional development and goal setting. Participants will receive a copy of the new 'Utah Core Competencies: and we will discuss how it can be useful to them in their work. We will discuss how the Core Competencies can be used as a self-assessment tool to help individuals set goals to improve professional practices or how supervisors can use it to assist their staff in professional development.	JoEllen Robbins: Infant/Toddler Specialist & Carolyn Taylor-Christensen: Professional Development Specialist, OCC
3027	Learn how to establish an effective business relationship with parents. Help them and yourself value you service.	Tracy Halverson NAFCC, MA in ECE and Home Provider
3028	Learn how the Bureau of Childcare licensing defines accessible & inaccessible areas of your home. How will the licenser inspect your home and outdoor play area.	Karrie Phillips Family Training Specialist Child Care Licensing

3029	This workshop will have tons of inexpensive, hand-on activities that can be used in any preschool, head start or family childcare program. Ideas include DAP activities to stimulate learning and imagination and won't break a budget!	Shauna Lower: BA USU, ECE Trainer, Owner of 'Magic Movements Childcare' & Carol Osler: Teacher, SLCAP Head Start
	Infant/Toddler
3019	"When are we going to talk about the tantrums? " Now! In this workshop we will discuss typical challenging behaviors of infants & toddlers and how we can respond professionally, effectively and compassionately. Come, let's troubleshoot those tantrums together!	Kylee Cook Consultant, Trainer, Specialist OCC
3021	We will discuss ways to be effective in telling and reading stories to infants & toddlers. Learn how to involve the children in the activity of storytelling & reading.	Jan welsh Infant/Toddler Specialist Family Connection Center
	Preschool/Kindergarten
3013	Preschool concepts can be taught through music and movement. More purposeful planning can help us implement music & movement into our daily schedule.	Sharon Moore & Heather Prescott Teacher OWCAP Head Start
3014	Learn why all 44 sounds need to be taught to preschoolers. Learn how to create a phonetic foundation for future reading with fun strategies for sounds and their spellings. Free learning materials.	Nada Wilkins President & Teacher Phonics by Spelling
3015	Learn what makes 'circle' and gathering times fun for children and how you can use circle time to teach turn taking and sharing. The workshop will offer tips and ideas for gathering children and keeping them involved as well as materials you can use tomorrow.	Carrie Sigler CCR&R Western
3016	This workshop will present a 'formula' for training New Staff working with young children, to handle 'misbehavior' with humor and respect. Step #1 creates boundaries that allow a 'safe zone' for the misbehavior. From there we learn how 'misbehavior' is a teaching tool.	Lynn Palmer Administrative Director Young Explorers Inc.
3017	This presentation will share activity ideas in containers with teacher selected activities for 2 students to work on together. These are great transition activities for the fast finishers, pickup, drop off time and any other time children might need to work.	Andrea Howard Education Specialist Head Start
3018	Create meaningful learning activities just for kindergarten that cover all areas of the curriculum. Learn about the Super Six Learning Stations.	Trish Saccomano: Clinical Instructor U of U & Kathy Bringhurst; Curriculum Specialist Guadalupe Schools
	School Age

3022	Games and Activities to keep school aged kids busy. Take home with you an activity bag already to use!	Joanne Curtis CCR&R Mountainland
3023	Come learn ready to deliver 4-H science activities for school age youth based on a popular book series. Make Bogart brains, a magic wand, get sorted into a house. Then see how 4-H can help you plan activities on line. With this resource you can try an activity from " slimy Goey Gross Science" and 'Star wars and Super Heros".	Lindsey Jewell 4-H Educator Utah State University MA Family & Human Development
	Administrative
3024	This workshop will help directors understand that their supervisory styles greatly impact the success of individual teachers.	Karla Pardini Director of Child Youth & Family Serviecs Jewish Community Center
3025	This session will provide insight and ideas for those who supervise, as we enhance staff retention and staff work performance.	Crystal Knippers Training Coordinator CCR&R Northern

Session 4 Breakouts: 2:00 pm – 2:50 pm

Class #	Description of Presentation	Presenter
	Family Child Care/Mixed Ages
4001	This presentation provides information on 'normal' reactions to loss and grief that children will experience. Learn the different developmental stages of grief and their impact in the classroom.	Barbara Norris Executive Director A Center for Grieving Children
4002	This session will share the knowledge of building relationships and creating nurturing and supportive Early Childhood environments.	Jill Chelsey-McGinnis Program Director The Children's Center
4003	We have created a FUNdamental workshop outline. You can apply subject to the outline to make a workshop for teachers and fun lessons for children. When creating these workshops we have incorporated hands-on felt sets for greater creativity & learning.	Joy Nebeker & Rachel Miller SRT Independent Consultant
4004	In this class we will gain a better understanding of different communication styles and help teachers become more of a coach/mentor for young children to build self esteem.	Dianne Yancey President of DSN Coaching
4005	Attendees will gain knowledge of common speech & language disorders in preschool children. We will discuss techniques the classroom teacher can use to facilitate speech & language growth and when to refer to a speech pathologist.	Julia Lidgard Speech Language Pathologist U of U
4006	Learn about Child Health & Nutrition: and the signs of abuse and reporting.	Joyce Hastings Center Training Specialist, State of Utah
4007	Come and learn some fantastic ideas on what to do with all that junk! Participates will be actively involved in creating art projects, building musical instruments and learn other cool ideas to do beautiful junk!	Kim Dutson & Stephanie Jensen CCR&R Bridgerland
4027	Learn how to establish an effective business relationship with parents. Help them and yourself value the service.	Tracy Halverson NAFCC,MA in EVE and Home Provider
4028	Learn how the Bureau of Licensing defines accessible & inaccessible areas of your home. How will the licenser inspect your home and outdoor play area?	Karrie Phillips Family Training Specialist Child Care Licensing
4029	This workshop will have tons of inexpensive, hand-on activities that can be used in any preschool, head start or family childcare program. Ideas include DAP activities to stimulate learning and imagination and won't break a budget!	Shauna Lower , ECE Trainer, Owner & Teacher for Magic Movements Childcare & Carol Osler: Teacher, SLCAP Head Start

	Infant/Toddler
4019	'When are we going to talk about the tantrums?' Now! In this workshop we will discuss typical challenging behaviors of infants and toddlers and how we can respond professionally, effectively and compassionately. Come, Let's troubleshoot those tantrums together!	Kylee Cook Consultant, Trainer, Specialist OCC
4021	We will discuss ways to be effective in telling and reading stories to infants & toddlers. Learn how to involve the children in the activity of storytelling & reading.	Jan Welsh Infant/Toddler Specialist Family Connection Center
	Preschool/Kindergarten
4013	Preschool concepts can be taught through music and movement. More purposeful planning can help us implement music & movement into our daily schedule.	Sharon Moore Teacher, OWCAP Head Start
4014	Learn why all 44 sounds need to be taught to preschoolers. Learn how to create a phonetic foundation for future reading with fun strategies for sounds and their spellings. Free learning materials.	Nada Wilkins President & Teacher Phonics by Spelling
4015	Learn what makes 'circle' and gathering times fun for children and how you can use circle time to teach turn taking and sharing. The workshop will offer tips and ideas for gathering children and keeping them involved as well as materials you can use tomorrow.	Carrie Sigler CCR&R Western
4016	This workshop will present a 'formula' for training New Staff working with young children, to handle 'misbehavior' with humor and respect. Step #1 creates boundaries that allow a 'safe zone' for the misbehavior. From there we learn how 'misbehavior' is a teaching tool.	Lynn Palmer Administrative Director Young Explorers Inc.
4017	This presentation will share ideas in containers with teacher selected activities for 2 students to work together. These are great transition activities for the fast finishers, pickup, drop off time and any other time children might need to work.	Andrea Howard Education Specialist Head Start
4018	Create meaningful learning activities just for kindergarten that cover all areas of the curriculum. Learn about the Super Six Learning Stations.	Trish Saccomano: Curriculum Specialist, Guadalupe Schools & Kathy Bringhurst: Clinical Instructor, U of U
4030	Fun simple ways to get young children involved in early math learning activities.	Crystal Knippers Training Coordinator/Specialist CCR&R Northern

	School Age
4022	Games and Activities to keep school aged kids busy. Take home with you an activity bag already to use!	Joanne Curtis CCR&R Mountainland
4023	Learn how to handle and prevent problem areas with school age youth. The workshop will address problem areas including: boys who struggle to participate over long timeframes, chaos during transitions, challenging individual personalities, and how youth leadership transforms your program	Lindsey Jewell 4-H Educator Utah State University, MA Family & Human Development
	Administrative
4024	This workshop will help directors understand that their supervisory styles greatly impact the success of individual teachers.	Karla Pardini Director of Child Youth & Family Services, Jewish Community Center

2nd Half Day Breakouts: 1:00 pm – 2:50 pm

	Family Child care/ Mixed Ages
3028	There are 42,000 children in Utah who are being raised by a relative. These children come to their relative's home with a myriad of issues and caregivers face many obstacles in meeting their needs. We will discuss these issues and the tools that can be put into place for success.	Jacci Graham: LCSW, Grandfamilies Director & Anna-Lee Hernandez: SSW, Grandfamilies Coordinator, Children's Services Society
3209	We will present the "7 Habits of Highly Effect People" by Stephan R Covey. And how I was able to use these habits a new director.	Tomi Kim Owner & Director Kinderland Inc,
	Infant/Toddler
3220	The new kid is overwhelmed, the teacher is frustrated, the parents are sad and concerned! We'll discuss things we can do to help the new child through his first days.	Vickie Becker Infant/Toddler Specialist The Children's Center
	Spanish
3212	We will use a multimedia interactive presentation to explore creative and fun ideas to use books, music and movements with parent interaction to help your body develop properly.	Jeane Adam: Child Development Specialist & Martha Scott: Family Educator, KOTM
	Administrative
3226	Too often Child care providers get caught up in their daily operations and do not take the time to plan for the future. This workshop is designed to provide child care business owners and directors with critical evaluation tools and action steps they need to maximize the growth and profitability of their business.	Carrie Menzel Financial & Performance Analyst, SLCC
3230	Caring for children and working with parents and co-workers can be stressful and emotionally charged. A high degree of self-awareness and self-care is part of skill and knowledge base to survive and thrive in the work of quality child care.	Alda Jones Program Director The Children's Center