

SLCC Community Writing Center Fundraiser Haiku Contest Winners

Level I: K-3rd grade

First Place: Izzy S., Bonneville

The mountains were gray
And the trees a dark color from last hours rain

HM: Ben A., Emerson

a cat was sleeping on a big gray solid rock peaceful and quiet.

HM: Benjamin F., Bonneville

In the dark jungle
The sun comes through the clearing
And the lion roars

Level II: 4th - 6th grade

First Place: Ben H., Emerson

Knight's with swords attack, catapults sling their rubble.
A war has begun

Archers shoot their arrows, the enemy is dead now.
A war has been won.

HM: Tristan B., Emerson

Thunder is booming
The mournful sky is crying its tears feed the earth

HM: Jaimey T., Emerson

Starlight
Dark blankets the sky
A million stars sparkle bright
Their glow lights the world.

Level III: 7th - 8th grade

First Place: Cole B., Reid

Lightning
Lighting is a lie,
as it builds up inside,
it destroys itself

HM: Adriane K., Salt Lake Arts Acad.

Floating above us,
Eating words not yet spoken-- invisible ghosts.

HM: Olivia K., Reid

Squirrels
chattering squirrels storing nuts in the giant trees you nutty squirrels

Level IV: 9th - 12th grade

First Place: Zephania H.

Sufi
Rich colored dresses
Whirl, twirl, not quite towards heaven
Sound of shaking beads

HM: Penny V.

Russet leaves softly falling Bright eyes widely smiling
Tender lovers gaze

For information on this contest, call the SLCC Community Writing Center at (801) 957-4992.