SLCC hosts Federal Stimulus conference

Salt Lake Community College hosts the Financing Your Business Conference on June 11, 2009 at the college's Miller Campus 9750 South 300 West in Sandy. Participants will learn about the opportunities currently available to business owners, including how to take advantage of the Federal Government's stimulus programs.

Registration begins at 7:30 a.m. at the Miller campus; the conference runs until 12:30. The Small Business Association of Utah will offer a presentation on Federal stimulus package programs for business owners, and attendees can also choose from several timely break-out sessions to learn more about managing the finances of their company.

The registration fee is $35.
